THE CRUSADER

Greenville Christian School

Greenville, Mississippi

Volume 2

The Foreword

We of the Annual Staff wish to present to you this second volume of The Crusader. We have enjoyed working together on this project and hope you will share our enthusiasm in its outcome. Even though the real memories of this year lie not so much in these pages as in our minds, we want to present the year silhouetted, that it may not become shadowy with time.

Senior Play

These next few pages hold many memories for the Senior class, the school, and all the people that had any part in the play. This play will go down in school history as a "First of It's Kind." We want to give a special thanks to Mrs. George Browne, director, Jeanette Hubbard, Isabel, and Bill Ireland Homer.

Senior Prophecy

Let's take a look into the Future. We will look at the lives of the 1971 Senior Class ten years from now. The way I figure it, it will be around 1981. What will those intelligent Seniors be doing then? Here is what the crystal ball portrays.

JIMMY McCOOL has gained 235lbs. and is now a part of Ringling Brothers's Circus. One of the tents I believe.

SAM OSWALT was banned from Earth and is now a farmer on the moon.

ED DAVIS is in business for himself. I see a sign over his door "Ed's 24 hour Fix-it Shop."

DIANE FABICK has just published a book, "How to Fake Sickness."

JERRY WATKINS now sells Ducks, Cold Ducks. He also sings "Oh, Say Can You See," to them.

GINGER WATKINS owns a Home for Girls in New Orleans and has 10 kids already.

GAYE LUKE has finally made her home in Philadelphia, Mississippi.

DIANA HOPE is living in Florida at the Air Force base with Ken. All 12 of their kids are happy.

TIPPI TUCKER is a singing nun.

BETH ABEL has just won a Betty Homemaker Award.

GERALDINE NERREN is a Den Mother to Cub Scout troop 87.

KAYE CONNELLY is teaching on her own level, Nursery School.

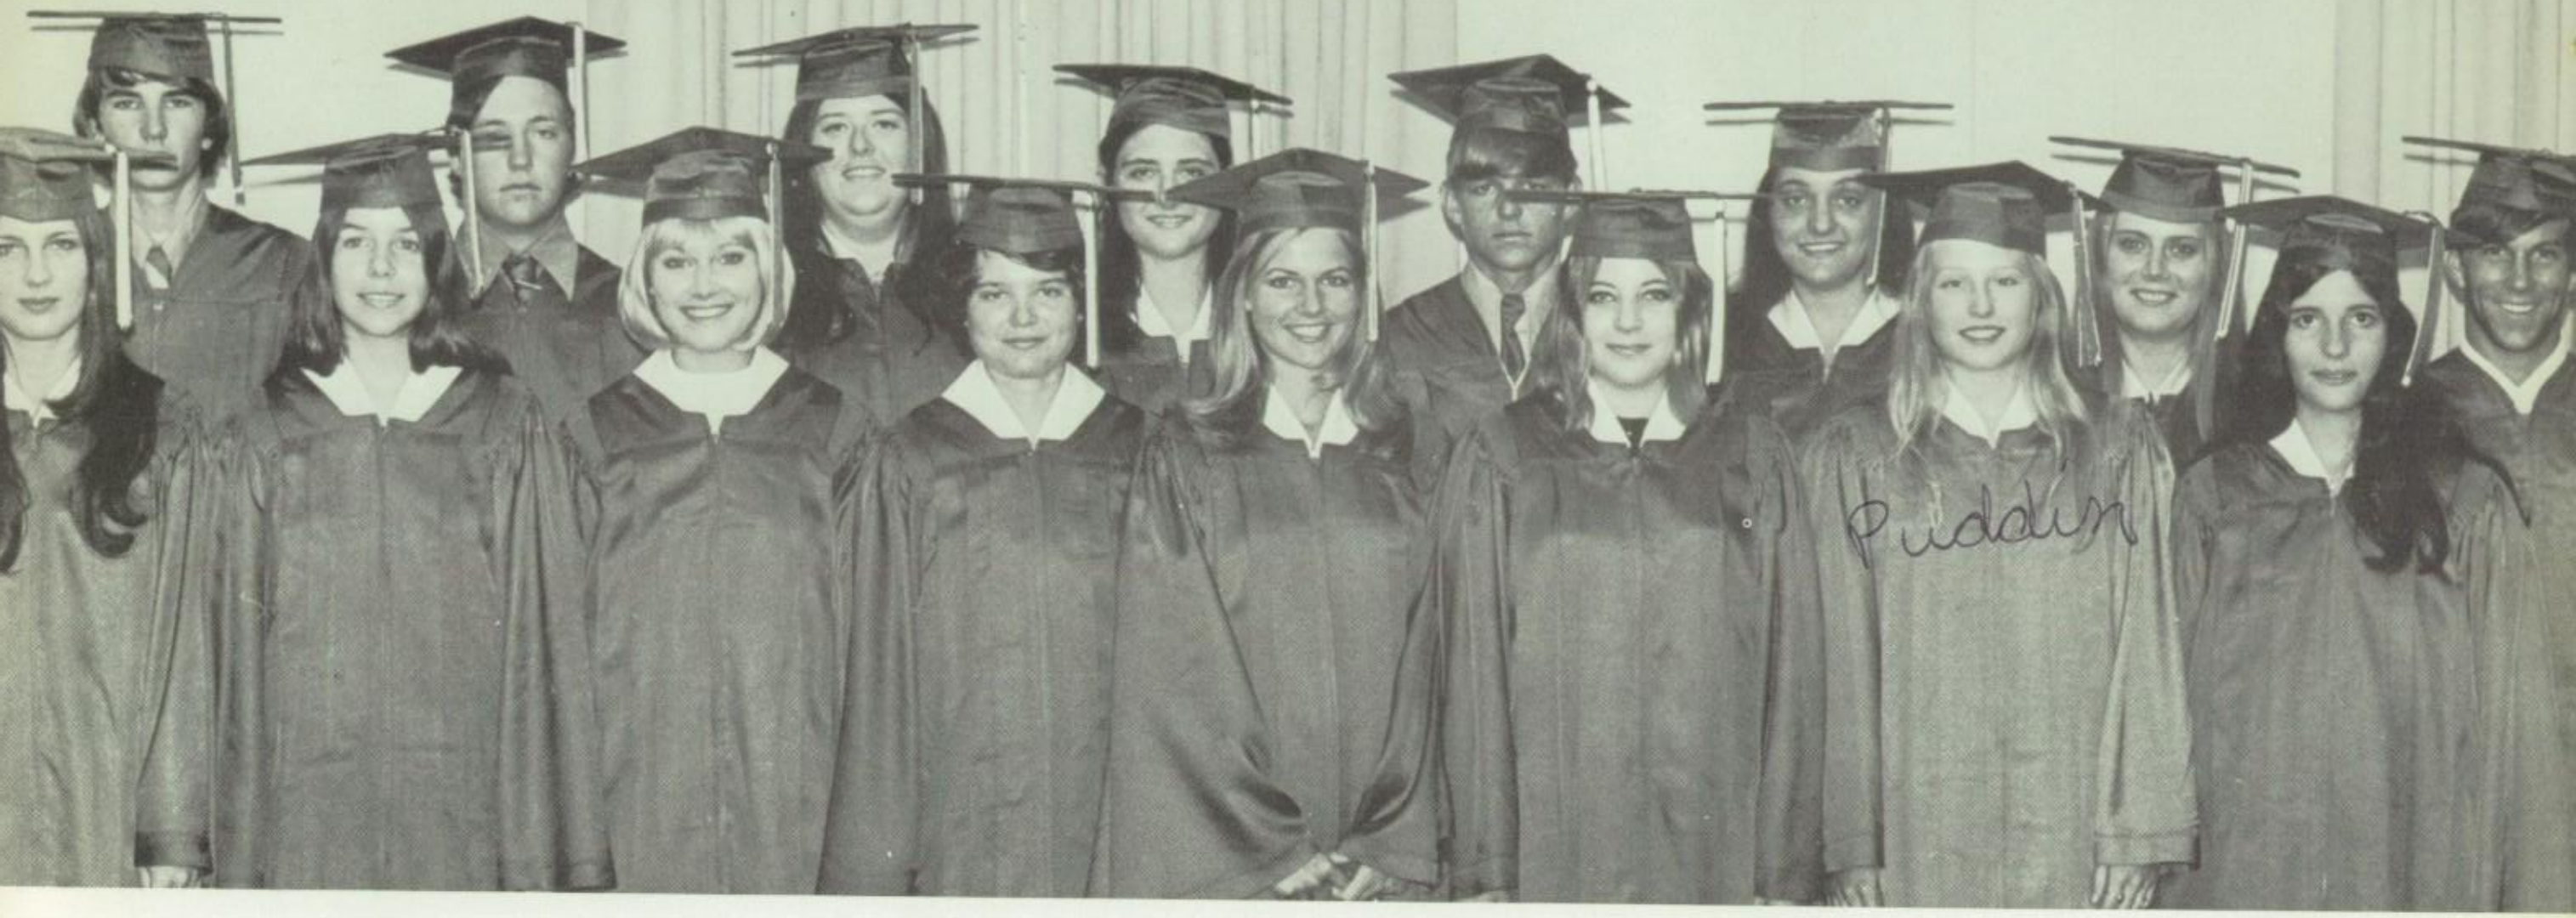
SANDY SCRIVNER is working for Womans Lib. She is running for president of the United States.

PEGGY WILLIAMS is a auto race driver and has just won the Indianapolis 500.

MARGARET THOMAS is producing Duck Butter.

PUDDIN BUEHLER has just joined the circus too, they call her the Flying Lady.

Last but not least is MRS. FISHER. She is still Senior Class sponsor and is now in Leland with the Seniors of 1981, on their Senior Trip!!



Senior Class
